

RUSKIN in SHEFFIELD in Walkley 2018

Ruskin in Sheffield is working with Walkley Carnegie Library on a community arts project called Seeing Beauty, Inspiring Minds to develop the library as a hub of local creativity. The project is inspired by the creative and educational spirit of the former St George's Museum in Walkley, home of the Ruskin Collection 1875-1890.

Saturday 6th October 2pm – 4pm

COMIC-BOOK EVENT & WORKSHOP (age 12 yrs +)
Walkley Carnegie Library, 403 South Road, S6 3TD

Renowned Ruskin author Kevin Jackson, and comic illustrator Hunt Emerson, talk about their long-term collaboration to create a series of comic books to introduce people to the life-enriching ideas of John Ruskin. Bloke's Progress combines their earlier publications, How to be Rich, and How to See, and includes the new How to Work. Kevin and Hunt will be interviewed by comic inker Bambos Georgiou, run a comic drawing workshop, and sign books!

Free | Reserve a place via ruskininsheffield@gmail.com or turn up on the day.

8th November to 13th December

Comic-Book workshops for 13 – 18 year olds
Walkley Carnegie Library, 403 South Road, S6 3TD

If you're 13 – 18 years old and live in Walkley, you can take part in a new series of workshops to create your own comic book, inspired by what matters to you. The workshops take place after school over six weeks with comic illustrator Bambos Georgiou and writer Anne Grange. The comic books will be displayed around Walkley from May to July 2019, and the project will be part of a display at the Ruskin Gallery in the Millennium Gallery in 2019.
